PROFILE

My name is Hoem Vandoeun, a dedicated and passionate student currently pursuing a degree in Computer Studies at Norton University. I have practical experience in IT Support, where I developed strong problem-solving and technical skills to assist users effectively. In addition, I also have experience as a sports teacher, which has helped me build leadership, teamwork, and communication abilities. I am highly motivated to learn new technologies and enjoy taking on challenges that help me grow both professionally and personally.
